

FAQ - Frequently Asked Questions

The Frequently Asked Questions list is for the sipXcom Open Source products. It is maintained by the Open Source Community. If you learn something new about sipXcom, please take a moment to add it to the FAQ so that others can gain the same information conveniently.

If you have a question that should be added to this FAQ, please either enter it, or submit it to the forum as a question and mark it to be added to this FAQ.

If a new section needs to be added, please start a new page and title it with an appropriate name as the title.

Working together, we are all making a big difference.